About Us

Years of Experience

Yutika Natural Pvt Ltd is the most trusted Indian cultivator, manufacturer & exporter of henna (Mehendi in India) & henna based hair color products. It also manufactures ready to use henna paste cones more commonly known as Mehndi cone in India. We also manufacture and supply premium quality powder and crème based hair color, skin care products, personal care & hygiene products.

We started Cultivating henna in 1930. This modest and smalltime stint with henna cultivation started at Dodiya, Sojat tehsil, a very small village in Rajasthan province of India with a population of hardly 1000. Taking this love forward the company commercially established itself in the year 1954 in Nisha brand with a vision to streamline the orthodox Mehendi business and started manufacturing superior quality products that are reasonably priced and are at par with international standards.

With a sound infrastructure of 3 well equipped & contemporary manufacturing units and a highly motivated & dedicated team, we have become one of the leading manufacturers of hair care & personal care products in India. Currently our company exports its products in as many as 60 countries across South East Asia, Middle East and Latin America.

Committed to Quality

From our product ingredients to our R&D and manufacturing to sales operations, Quality always comes first. Therefore, we cultivate our own henna in order to get the best quality henna leaves & manufacture products using it with strict quality measures.

Our henna and henna based hair color products are absolutely free from Ammonia.

Our wide range of hair color products like powder and crème hair colors in various shades provide consumers with a wide range of options to choose from.

Ready to use Mehendi cones changed the way people and artists use Mehndi paste for beautiful designs.

Honestly Priced

We constantly work towards offering the best products at the right prices, without any up charging.

We are committed to inspire and empower the Consumers with our very own home grown Indian products, which offers them equal quality of an international brand.
